

Owingsville Outlook.

THURSDAY, OCT. 30, 1884.

The Verdict of Experts.

"Fetch in your corps," demanded the foreman of a Texas coroner's jury. The body was laid before them. The jury made a careful examination, and questioned the attending surgeon.

"What was he shot?"
"Square through the heart?"
"Dead in the centre of the heart?"
"Right in the centre."
"Who shot him?"
"Jake Daniels."

A dozen witnesses declared Jake fired the shot, and Jake himself admitted it.

The jury consulted softly for some time.

"Well, gentlemen of the jury," said the coroner, "what is your verdict?"

"Waul, Judge, we've come to the conclusion, that Jake Daniels is the dandiest shot into in these parts, and don't you forget it."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup For Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup For Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

Here is an epitaph which Dom Platt transcribed from a tombstone in a New Hampshire graveyard a few weeks ago. There was no lack of candor in that part of the Granite State, evidently:

Here is old Sam Hum,
By whom the Devil cried:
"Go to it, old fellow!"

What a Dear Good Husband He Was.

"Why this sad one, Henry?" she asked across the cosy tea table the evening.

"Nellie, prepare yourself to hear bad news."

"What is it?"
"I—I—"
"Oh, Henry!"
"I have died!"
"Not!"
"Yes, indeed."
"For how long?"
"For $50,000."

"Oh! I'm so glad, glad, glad! I am, of course, a preferred creditor for at least $40,000 of it, and now we'll have a home of our own, and we'll furnish it in the cosiest manner, and we shall come to live with us, and—oh, what a dear good husband you are!"—Wall Street News.

This is a Christian and civilized country, but just as soon as a baby is born its parents are anxious to give it a weigh.

"Get any medicine," asked a boy, entering a drug store the other day. "Yes, lots of it. What do you want?" inquired the clerk. "Oh, it don't make any difference, so it's something lively. Dad is fearful bad." "What, said him?" asked the clerk. "Duane," said the boy, "but he's run down awful. He just sits around the stove all day and coughs. He hasn't walked since Christmas. I guess he's going to die."

The Cheapest.
The Strongest.
The Most Durable.

And the Prettiest Fence in the World!

We desire to announce to the farmers of Bath county that we have established an agency in Bath county, with Mr. J. A. M. as agent, for the sale of our combined wire hedge fence, which is conceded to be the best and most durable fence in the world being a living fence, and with proper care will last a long time. We complete this fence to the satisfaction of purchasers, and at about one half the cost of post and rail fences. It will outlast a dozen post and rail fences, and will cost less to keep in perfect order—the only necessary attention to the fence being after its completion being an occasional pruning, which can be done at a very small outlay per rod.
